2021 – 2022 Leadership Illawarra Program (LIP)

UOW Master Class Credit Policy

Participants of the Leadership Illawarra Program can gain credit points towards a degree program at the Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong by being a part of the LIP and completing optional assessment tasks.

LIP participants who want to gain specified credit points towards a degree program offered by the Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong, will need to complete assessment tasks and submit assessments by the due date informed by the relevant academic. Participants will be advised of the outcome of their assessment usually within two weeks. Further details will be provided during the Leadership Illawarra Program.

LIP participants can apply for credit for subjects in designated Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong postgraduate degree programs within 5 years of completing the Leadership Illawarra Program, if they:

1. Attend the Marketing and/or Leadership Master Classes; and
2. Submit the assessment tasks or projects associated with these subjects within two months of the Master Class taking place, and successfully complete them.

It is also expected that participants attend at least 80% of the overall Leadership Illawarra Program events.

The LIP Coordinator will be responsible for recording attendance and will provide participants with confirmation of attendance that participants should provide to Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong when applying for Credit.

LIP Participants will need to forward their completed assessments to the nominated academic for marking and will be advised of the outcome of their assessment usually within two weeks.

This does not apply to any other Master Class or Workshop included in the LIP program. Credit cannot be used for an elective or unspecified credit. If an LIP participant is already undertaking their MBA, the credit will only apply to the relevant subject associated with the Marketing and Leadership Master Classes determined by Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong.

Academics will agree to provide assessment tasks minimum one to two weeks prior to the Master Class taking place. Where possible slide packs will also be made available prior to the commencement of the Master Class.

The format and content of LIP may be revised regularly to reflect changes in the industry and the process of offering credit will be reviewed every 12 months to ensure compliance with UOW policies and relevant legislative and accreditation requirements.

Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong is responsible for defining and following an internal process for recording and registering individuals who pass the assessments.

Sydney Business School, University of Wollongong will provide participants with certification stating that they have qualified for credit upon successful completion of the set assessment tasks or projects.

Questions or concerns regarding a Master Class subject should be raised in the first instance with Taryn McDonnell, via email tarynmc@uow.edu.au