

Year	Month	Date	Time	Title	Speaker/Facilitator	Synopsis	Venue
2016	November	Tuesday 15th	5.30pm - 7.00pm	Challenges for the Illawarra	Alex Frino	Illawarra's Economic Outlook by UOW Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Global Strategy)	UOW
2016	November	Tuesday 15th	7.30pm - 10.30pm	LIP Meet & Greet/Expectations session	Debra Murphy/ LIP Steering Committee	Informal dinner - get to know LIP participants. Expectations session.	Villa Doro
2016	December	Wednesday 7th	4.00pm - 6.00pm	What is the secret to successful Leadership?	Eddy De Gabriele	Community Leadership and Eddy's experiences - secrets of successful leadership. Includes Edmen site visit	Edmen
2017	February	Saturday 25th	9.30am - 4.30pm	Adaptive Leadership Workshop	Eleanor Hayman & Kate Quinlivan	The Adaptive Leadership workshop will help you to know yourself, understand others, and lead more powerfully. This hands-on, experiential workshop is an insightful and practical workshop.	Gwynneville Masonic Hall
2017	April	Thursday 6th	2.00pm - 5.00pm	BlueScope Site Visit	Mark Vassella	Site tour via Industry World, then discussion on community and leadership with Mark Vassella	BlueScope
2017	April	Saturday 29th	9.30am - 4.30pm	Motivation and Team Engagement Workshop	Eleanor Hayman & Kate Quinlivan	The psychology of attitudes and motivation is explored, with participants gaining a clearer understanding of what motivates them, in addition to identifying others key motivators. The link between motivation and engagement is explored.	Gwynneville Masonic Hall
2017	May	Wednesday 10th	5.00pm - 7.00pm	Mentoring Speed Networking	JCI Illawarra	Mentoring session - active participation in 'speed networking' and selection of mentors.	UOW - SMART Building (6), Room 105
2017	May	Saturday 20th	9.30am - 4.30pm	Governance and Ethics Master Class	Ian Fargher	The Governance and Ethics theme will dissect not only public office governance but also corporate governance as it relates to the treatment of risk and organisational policies. Key topics include: - Corporate Governance - Obligations under Corporations Law and other regulatory systems - Business Ethics and Integrity - Local Government and Public Office - Government Affairs At completion of this theme it is expected that participants would be able to identify: - Key concepts associated with corporate governance and public policy, particularly as the latter relates to the regulation of business activities. - Different approaches to corporate governance that have shaped governance debates in Australia and internationally - The role of government recommended by these approaches - Key stakeholders in the governance debate, and explain how and why they seek to shape that debate and its outcomes - The role or impact that ethics have on corporate governance - How the policy and regulatory environment affects the effectiveness of corporate governance	UOW - 40A G81
2017	June	21/22	2 days - overnight	Canberra - Parliament House Overnight Visit	Debra Murphy	The group heard from inspiring leaders including Dr Brendan Nelson AO, Dr Allan Hawke AC, the Hon Fiona Nash, the Hon Concetta Fierravanti-Wells, the Hon Sharon Bird and Stephen Jones. Visits were centred in and around Parliament House, as well as a tour of the War Memorial.	Canberra
2017	July	Monday 17th	2.30pm - 5.00pm	Wollongong City Council Site Visit	Gordon Bradbery & David Farmer	Site visit to Blue Mile project, then meet with Lord Mayor & General Manager, then watch Council meeting (online via webcast at RDA-Illawarra office)	Blue Mile site; WCC Level 10; RDAI
2017	July	Wednesday 26th	5.30pm - 7.30pm	Mentoring Mid-Way review	JCI Illawarra	Keynote speaker Faye Hollands "Navigating Your Career Success"	UOW - SMART Building (6), Room 105
2017	August	Wednesday 9th	2pm - 5pm	Coaching for Managers	Assoc. Prof Grace McCarthy	While executive coaches get a lot of publicity, managers have also been adding coaching skills to their repertoire and the results to date are impressive, with positive outcomes reported in employee engagement, alignment, performance and development. Managers also report that they experience great satisfaction from coaching their employees. Challenges also exist, for example, related to the power difference between manager and employee. Following a short overview of recent research into coaching by managers, this workshop will focus on two key coaching skills: listening and questioning, allowing time for people to practise their skills.	UOW - 40A.G81
2017	September	Thursday 7th	5.30pm - 7.00pm	Mentoring Graduation	JCI Illawarra		UOW - SMART Building (6), Room 105
2017	September	Saturday 16th	9.00am - 4.00pm	Leadership Master Class	Dr Ann Rogerson	The Leadership theme will engage the emerging leader in new and exciting ways to lead personally and organisationally. Key topics within leadership include: - Managing and leading people - Organisational culture - Emotional Intelligence - Business Coaching At the completion of this theme it is expected that participants would have gained an understanding of: - Experience with politicians and political protocols in business - Different perspectives and practices used to manage people in organisations - How external factors and business criteria influence strategic decisions relating to the way organisations manage their people - Strategic policy options available to managers in terms of structure, motivation, leadership and the culture of the organisation - Ethical issues involved in managing people and the value and challenge of managing diversity - Coaching and mentoring in leadership	UOW - 40A.G81
2017	October	TBC - weekday	2.00pm - 5.00pm	IRT Site Visit
2017	November	TBC - weekday	2.00pm - 5.00pm	IMB Bank Site Visit
2017	December	TBC	evening	Christmas social event
2018	February
2018	March
2018	April
2018	May
2018	June
2018	July	Saturday - 7th	9.00am - 4.00pm	Community and Engagement (CSR) Master Class	Dr Belinda Gibbons	The Community Engagement / Social Responsibility theme will critically examine the responsibilities that corporations have to the local community, society at large, the environment and other key stakeholders in their strategic decision-making. The themes will not only look at how the emerging leaders can more actively engage with responsible decision-making but also highlight organisations that are working in these areas locally and internationally, encouraging open dialogue about the issues, challenges and successes that come from being dynamically engaged with the people and resources of our region. Key topics include: - What is CSR and the different terms that are used globally in industry - Mental models and responsible decision-making dimensions a - Social b - Environmental c - Stakeholder d - Voluntary e - Global / Economic - Realistic perspectives on community and environmental responsibilities - The United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) Principles and their impact on corporations - The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and their impact on decision-making At the completion of this theme participants would be expected to have gained an understanding of: - Our region's community and environmental needs - Personal Corporate responsibility - A leader's role in business as it pertains to responsible decision-making - The region's cultural diversity - The region's business community engagement and social responsibility programs - Global programs such as the UNGC and the SDG	UOW - 40A.G81
2018	August
2018	September
2018	October	Tuesday - 9th	7.00pm - 10.30pm	Graduation Celebratory Dinner at TIC	TIC	Graduation dinner at black tie event - TIC	Novotel Northbeach
2018	November
2018	December

Legend

Self Evaluation Workshop
Site visit
Master Class - UOW
Mentoring
Social